Docket No. 00-00763

PETITION TO REVERT CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY TO ORIGINAL OPERATING STRUCTURE OF CONCERT COMMUNICATIONS SALES LLC

On March 21, 2000, Concert Communications Sales LLC ("CCS") filed an Application for Approval of a Corporate Reorganization Involving Transfers of Control ("Application"). The Application described a proposed corporate reorganization within the AT&T Corp. – British Telecommunications, PLC global venture known as Concert (of which CCS is a subsidiary). Central to the reorganization was a request that the certification to provide intrastate telecommunications initially filed by CCS be transferred to Concert USA, an affiliate of CCS. Subsequently, CCS was to be merged into Concert USA. Concert believed that this rearrangement would serve the public interest, permitting significant operating efficiencies as well as one-stop shopping for customers of Concert's end-to-end global telecommunications services, of which the intrastate services provided by CCS are a key component.

Since the Application was filed, the issuance of the TRA's Order Approving Transfer of Authority dated July 18, 2000, and the TRA's subsequent closure of the docket, there have been additional changes within the Concert business plan. As a result, the proposed reorganization no longer achieves the beneficial ends originally envisioned, and Concert believes that the operating efficiencies anticipated via the consolidation of operations into Concert USA will be most fully achieved if CCS continues as the certificated provider of intrastate telecommunications.

Therefore, notwithstanding the TRA's July 18th Order and subsequent closure of the docket, CCS requests that the TRA grant CCS permission to terminate the authority and certification conferred upon it by the TRA's July 18, 2000, Order, and requests that the TRA allow such authority and certification to revert to CCS, which will continue as the certificated provider of interexchange services in Tennessee.

CCS apologizes for this reversal in course and thanks the TRA for its patience throughout the licensing process. With its organizational issues resolved, CCS looks forward to operating as a provider of intrastate telecommunications services to consumers in the state of Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted,

CONCERT COMMUNICATIONS SALES LLC
